

About The Range

Sleek, sharp, and undeniably sophisticated, the Aspen Armchair in leather is a striking addition to any space. Its bold design, angular lines that are artfully mirrored in the stitching details and sleek matte black metal legs creates an effortless statement of refined style with a modern edge. The gently sloped arms are thoughtfully designed to encourage complete relaxation, inviting you to settle into the foam and fibre filled seat and back cushions, that delivers both optimal support and plush seating comfort – Proving this occasional chair is just as comfy as it is eye-catching! Ideal for smaller living spaces yet striking enough to make a statement in larger rooms, the Aspen balances compact design with bold presence.
