

About The Range

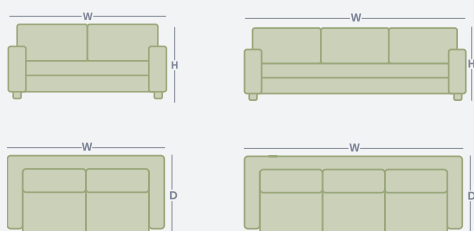

Merging mid-century inspiration with modern-day design, the Gino's slim, simple silhouette proves personality is all about the details. Sweeping angular armrests, adorned with classic flange seam detailing, stand out with their nostalgic appeal, effortlessly complemented by the vintage contours of uniquely shaped, sleek black metal leg. Settle in and get comfy as you sit back into the plush combination of feather and fibre in both the seat and back cushions – it's so cozy, you'll find it hard to leave. Perfectly scaled for small-space living, the Gino may be compact in size, but there's no denying it's a retro powerhouse with presence!
