

About The Range

Soon to be your new favourite seat in the house, Myles is designed for everyday family comfort with a relaxed, lived-in feel you'll keep coming back to. Blending feather fibre cushioning for that signature sink-in feel with a considered silhouette. As a modular design, Myles lets you build your ideal configuration - whether you're creating a compact setup or a spacious, sprawling lounge made for the whole family. However you shape it, Myles is designed to adapt to your space and your way of living, bringing together laid-back comfort and everyday practicality for an easy, natural fit at the heart of your home.
